Action of Conners Church.

Whereas, notice of an all-day singing at Conners on the third Sunday in October has been published in the county papers; and whereas, the church, after due deliberation, opposes the same and has appointed the undersigned as a committee to call the same off for the following reasons, viz: While many attend through the purest of motives, a majority go to have a free and easy good time and without proper restraint, and the singing being so immense becomes unwelcome and loses sight of the proper solemnity of the Lord's day. The observation of this church justifies its action. We love the song service and do not underrate it and will welcome Messrs. Morton, Burns and Shelor and all others among us on any ordinary occasion, but we doubt the propriety of the overflow meetings, unless under restraint more than common.

New Rural Free Delivery Routes in Oconee.

Last Wednesday Congressman Aiken, accompanied by Special Rural Agent A. B. Veazey, investigated a proposed rural free delivery route from Saleen, in the northern part of this county. Mr. Veazey made a strong favorable recommendation for the establishment of the route and Mr. Aiken says daily service will go on there in a few weeks.

These same gentlemen investigated and recommended new routes from Fort Madison and Fair Play.

Mr. Aiken says he will not be satisfied until one more new route is established from Walhalla and also one more from West Union.

He is also anxious to have the mail facilities bettered in the Long Creek country by extending the Clayton, Ga. route to Long Creek and hopes to put in rural free delivery from the latter office.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, and heals. Sold for 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a regular life preserver to me. It brought me through a severe attack of pneumonia, and I feel that I owe my life to its wonderful curative properties."—WILLIAM H. TRUITT, Wawa, Pa.

The Italian Earthquake.

Rome, October 7.—According to the latest official reports 300 villages were destroyed by the recent earthquake in the province of Calabria. Reconstruction work, it is estimated, will cost about $30,000,000 and funds contributed up to the present time amount to $400,000. The Pope is much distressed because of the situation, especially now that the severity of the autumn weather is felt among the inhabitants of the stricken district. His holiness to-day received the Right Rev. Francis Bourne, Roman Catholic archbishop of Westminster, in audience and thanked him warmly for opening a collection among the clergy of Westminster, adding: "All good Catholics throughout the world should imitate him."
